

CHAS. M. MICHAE, EDITOR.

HOPKINSVILLE, APR. 4, 1882.

Democratic State Ticket.

For Clerk of the Court of Appeals,
THOS. J. HENRY,
OF MORFAN COUNTY.

A bill has passed the United States Senate to establish an Eastern Judicial District of Kentucky.

The suspension bridge at Nashville has been conveyed to the city and no toll will be charged over it in the future.

In refusing to endorse the Jacobite movement the Republicans of Kentucky have repudiated their organ, the Louisville Commercial.

The indications now are that the Legislature will not adjourn for six weeks. It is still wrangling over apportionment maps with no prospect of agreeing.

Bro. Barnes' meeting at Paris resulted in 621 conversions, including many of the most prominent citizens in the city. The number of appointments was 151.

Gen. Strickland, a prominent Russian official, was assassinated at Odessa, Friday last week. He had incurred the enmity of the nihilists by his zeal in prosecuting them. The assassin was arrested.

The Republicans will not nominate a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, but the Central Committee refuses to endorse Jacob. They state that their action is in no way based upon the fact that Jacob is a candidate, but that Jacob is ignored utterly and entirely.

The Life a new cartoon paper just started at Herndon, Va., the Movie Comic a new paper recently started at Bramford, Ky. (C. W. Coleman, and the Grenada (Miss) Sentinel are this week added to our exchange list. We extend to them a fraternal welcome.

The Legislature has not yet agreed upon a congressional apportionment bill. It is probable that neither the majority nor the minority report will be accepted as a whole, but that a compromise will be effected. Christian will probably be allowed to remain in the Second District.

Some one has taken the trouble to hunt up the statistics showing how many Kentucky boys have attended college in other states since the war. They are as follows: University of Virginia 183; Washington and Lee University 151; Harvard 33; John Hopkins 10; Vanderbilt (since 1875) 331—making a total of 718.

Will H. Kernan, the rip roaring, howling wolf from Blitter creek, who formerly edited the Okaloosa States, an alleged Democratic paper, has turned up as editor of the Louise, (La.) Sentinel, a bloody shirt Republican organ. He says he was always a Republican and the Democratic party has no disposition to claim him.

It was announced some time ago that President Arthur would not appoint any woman to office, but would remove all post-mistresses and put stalwart voters in their place. It is now determined upon this course he has since changed his mind on the subject. Mrs. Virginia C. Thompson and Mrs. Mary L. Ross were re-appointed at Louisville and Newport last week. Their terms expired in December and they have been held in suspense ever since. Their nominations gave satisfaction to all except the office-seeking element of the Stalwarts.

W. P. Walton, editor of the Interior Journal is out in another caustic card, in which he proves by responsible men that Gov. Blackburn made the remark offering to pardon the man who would kill Walton. Gov. Blackburn, explains it by saying he did it in a joking way. Mr. Walton calls upon the Legislature to impeach the Governor and says he will introduce incontrovertible evidence to prove that he made the statement. Walton charges and insists that the matter demands an investigation.

W. H. Evans, a Methodist circuit rider and E. L. C. Denton, a Campbellite preacher, (21) have been for weeks, carrying on a disgraceful and undignified controversy through the columns of the Mayfield Democrat, paying for their articles as advertisements. They have certainly accomplished their purpose, and advertised the two reverend frauds throughout the State as ignoramuses with neither religion, sense, judgment, or a regard for common decency.

E. F. Maiden, a Democratic member of the Legislature and one of the sniffs of the Louisville Post, is charged with furnishing the correspondent of the Louisville Commercial with the secrets of the Democratic caucus on the apportionment matter. They were divulged by some one, and several numbers state in cards over their signatures that Maiden was the man who did the dirty work. He denies it emphatically, but circumstances appear to point to him as the traitor. We trust Mr. Maiden will be able to explain matters, as he is a young man who has attained considerable prominence in both politics and journalism and we would regret to see him implicated in such a transparent and disgraceful affair.

NONSENSE.

If you have flannel underclothes to shed, prepare to shed them now.

One hundred and forty-nine newspapers and the Duval Tribune are published in Kentucky.

The hyacinth is now the emblem of aristocracy that turns the lapel of the too too young man.

If "Whom the gods love die young," the Jacobite party (?) must have been their special pet and adopted child.

The Covington Commonwealth is very considerate. It copied a paragraph from this column last week, but spared the disgrace of having it credited to us.

OFFER TO SPRING POETS.

There is no class of writers who experience greater difficulty in rising to the product of their pens, than the much persecuted spring poets. They are made the theme of ridicule by cruel paragraphers with each recurrence of the season that causes a young man's fancy to lightly turn to thoughts of love and such subjects.

Desiring to nourish and encourage the budding poet in the hearts of the young men who are waiting their sweetness on the desert air, we, in accordance with our usual custom, will offer a premium for the best spring poem to be sent to us by the 15th inst. We make this offer in good faith and earnest, those poetically inclined will preserve the drops of inspiration that fall from their pens, and send them in promptly, and the poem securing the prize will be published in our issue of April 25th. The premium will be a copy of the SOUTH KENTUCKIAN one year, with a photograph of the writer. Poems must not exceed fifty lines in length.

Twenty-Five Lives Lost.

Early Thursday morning the steamer Golden City took fire at the Memphis wharf just as she was about to land, and was consumed in a few minutes. The boat took fire by the carelessness of Wash Smith, a colored watchman, in lighting a lamp. The following is a list of the lost: Dr. Mo-hannan and wife, Jackson, O.; Mrs. Cray, Fairmont, O.; Miss Luella Cray, Marion Place, near Cincinnati; W. H. Steward and wife; Ollie Wood and wife, Henderson, Ky.; Mrs. Anna Smith, Massachusetts; Mrs. Helen Percival, Haverhill, Ky.; Mrs. L. E. Kuntz and three children; Miss Campbell, a relative of Mrs. Kuntz; Robt. Kelly, second engineer; Mary Boyd and Amanda Atkinson, chamber maids; J. C. Crane, owner of the side show of Stowe's circus; three deck hands and a colored servant of W. H. Stowe. A portion of Stowe's circus was on the steamer. Six cages of animals, three canvas tents, the ticket and band wagons and the noted truck horse "Selim" were lost. A buffalo, a grizzly bear and some horses were saved by swimming ashore.

The boat was five years old and cost $32,000. It was insured for $30,000. Several of the crew and passengers acted with great heroism in trying to save the lives of women and children. Robt. Kelly, the engineer stood to his post, vainly endeavoring to land the boat, and sacrificed his life for others. Between thirty and forty persons were saved. As will be seen above, W. H. Stowe, proprietor of Stowe's circus, was among the lost. The negro watchman who dropped a burning wick into a lot of jute while trimming a lamp, has been arrested and jailed, charged with wholesale murder.

Stalwartism Triumphant.

The President has at last turned his attention to the Kentucky appointments and the first thing he did was to remove W. S. Wilson, R. H. Crittenden, and T. O. Shackelford and appoint Stalwarts in their places. Lewis Buckner, of Louisville, son of ex-Congressman Buckner, succeeds Wilson as Collector for the Fifth District, and J. A. Faulkner, of Garrard, and J. A. Auker, of Pike, are given the positions of Surveyor of Customs and United States Marshal for Kentucky. The latter two are Jno. D. White's men and have been hitherto "to fame unknown." Faulkner was one of the "300" stalwarts at Chicago. This action of the President in removing the Featherheads to appoint Stalwarts is a direct slap in the face to the Republican-Jacobite coalition. Indeed we may expect to hear nothing more of that great "movement." The opposing factions of the Republican party are now more antagonistic than ever and the Stalwarts, flushed with victory and loaded with spoils, have decidedly the advantage. The spectacle is an interesting one to Democrats and they can only watch the shadows of coming events and bet on the top dog in the fight.

Hon. Jno. G. Carlisle, of Kentucky, is credited with having made the best speech that has been made in Congress for years. He came to the defense of the Democratic doctrine on the tariff question and his speech was the most powerful one yet delivered on the subject. Mr. Carlisle is the man to succeed Senator Williams. Intellectually he has few peers in Kentucky.

Frank Weaver, of Boone Co. and Jno. East, of Adair, inmates of the Anchorage Asylum were sleeping in the same room and the former was killed by the latter with a bed slat. East was under the impression that he could not be allowed to go home until he killed Weaver.

VARIEGATED

IS THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

THE CONVENTION YESTERDAY.

BEHOLD ITS WORK.

The Republican County Convention was held yesterday evening and E. Q. Neal Campbell selected as Chairman. The proceedings were held with closed doors but we were able, nevertheless, to get the full proceedings, by what means it is unnecessary to say. The Convention met at 7 o'clock, P. M. and began balloting at 8 o'clock, 56 delegates being present. The first and second ballots for County Judge stood, H. Ferguson 25, A. V. Long 21, H. R. Little 9, necessary to a choice 20. The third ballot was taken in confusion and under frequent protests and stood, Long 31, Ferguson 25, whereupon A. V. Long was declared the nominee.

Jno. W. Breathitt, J. R. Long and Isaiah Jones col. were named for County Clerk and Breathitt nominated. He received the entire vote, 56. Jno. Brasler and E. G. Sebree Jr. were placed in nomination for County Attorney. The vote stood Sebree 30, Brasler 26, and Sebree was declared nominated.

The vote for Sheriff was one sided and stood C. M. Brown 43, Wm. Merrill 3.

H. T. McDaniel, J. J. Means, M. A. Littlefield, and Jas. Barnes were placed in nomination for Assessor. McDaniel was nominated on the first ballot, the vote standing: McDaniel 30, Means 3, Littlefield 18, Barnes 9.

The nominees for Jailor were Wyatt Watt, Phil Bell, Jno. Weakley, Sam'l Feland, Bowling and Jas. B. Martin, the first three being "colored brothers." Watt was nominated on the first ballot, the vote being as follows: Watt 31, Bell 9, Weakley 3, Martin 5, Bowling 3, Feland 1.

Jno. W. Armstrong was nominated for Surveyor without opposition. The nomination for Coroner was made in a burlesque. Several prominent names were nominated and all of these nominations were finally withdrawn and Beverly Kelly, col. received the unanimous vote of the convention.

Ed. Glass, col. was declared the nominee of the party in the Hopkinsville district, for Constable. The ticket was then announced as follows:

Judge, A. V. Long, present incumbent, Clerk, Jno. W. Breathitt, present incumbent, Attorney, E. G. Sebree, Jr., Sheriff, C. M. Brown, present incumbent, Assessor, H. T. McDaniel, Jailor, Wyatt Watt, col. (preacher) Surveyor, Jno. W. Armstrong, present incumbent, Coroner, Beverly Kelly, col. (blacksmith).

On motion the convention adjourned sine die, at 4 o'clock.

David Gibson has filed suit in the Butler Circuit Court for $10,000 damages against C. C. Brown and others. Brown employed the boy Gibson to work for him and upon making a pocket book containing $50 from the head of his bed he took the boy and beat him almost lifeless trying to make him confess that he had stolen the money. The boy denied it, and the money was afterwards found in the bed. Hon. E. D. Walker, of Hartford, is attorney for the plaintiff.

Powell Rose and Wm. North quarreled about a cross fence near Owensboro, Hart Co. North went to see Rose about it and lost work. Rose attempted to strike North with his fist when the latter drew a revolver and fired two shots at Rose. The first went through his body and the second missed its mark and killed a twelve-year-old daughter of Rose, who was standing behind her father. Rose will probably die from his wound, North was arrested.

GARRETSBURG.

EDITOR KENTUCKIAN:

After a long absence, "Camille" again desires to send to the KENTUCKIAN a few lines from Garrettsburg.

Miss Batis and Mary Cooper, two of Garrettsburg's most charming and attractive young ladies, brought gladness to the hearts of many, by a visit to their sister, Mrs. W. E. Embury, on last week; while Miss Florence Powers, a very intelligent young lady of Hopkinsville, also contributed greatly to the enjoyment of the party by her presence.

Rev. W. H. Ryal returned a few weeks since, from a protracted visit to relatives in Virginia, and has resumed his labors as pastor of Olive church, where he preaches on the 1st and 3rd Sundays in each month. Mr. Ryal, though a young man, is a preacher of rare talent and ability and his labors to the glory of his chosen calling.

The flourishing Sunday School, at Sharon church, which was suspended during the winter months, has been recently reorganized and will hereafter meet every Sabbath afternoon at 2 1/2 o'clock.

Eq. G. M. Quarles, employed in the interest of the M. & C. E. railroad, is now actively engaged in canvassing Christian county.

The time for spring cleaning is drawing nigh and the nervous man trembles in his boots over the thought of the terrible ordeal, through which he is destined to pass.

Naturalizing frequent rains considerably greasing has been down and a little corn planted in this neighborhood.

The pleasant aroma of peach and apple blossoms is now wafted upon the breeze and as yet we have the satisfaction of knowing that the fruit has not been killed.

Wonder why the spring poet does not favor us with an effusion?
